

Texas Tech on iTunes U Policy Guidelines

DISCLAIMER AND ATTESTATION:

Statements and opinions reflected in the content within Texas Tech on iTunes U are those of the copyright owner (audio and/or video file,) and not necessarily those of Texas Tech University.

All content submitted to Texas Tech on iTunes U will be publicly available and the contributor of that content is solely responsible for any consequences that may arise as a result of publishing.

Posting copyrighted materials to Texas Tech on iTunes U is strictly prohibited, unless written authorization from the author is obtained. It is the responsibility of the person submitting material to obtain and maintain all permissions and documentation related to relevant copyright of materials published on Texas Tech on iTunes U. In addition, content should not include material that is unlawful, obscene, libelous, commercial, political, or religious. Congruent with federal and state mandate, content posted on Texas Tech on iTunes U must not infringe upon other's intellectual property interests. Content must adhere to TTU Operating Policy, including the TTU IT Security policies, such as the Acceptable Use guidelines. Please note that Texas Tech University reserves the right to decide which content is appropriate and can remove content at any time without prior notice.

Uploading content to iTunes U does not guarantee that content will be preserved in perpetuity, since Texas Tech University does not own or operate the iTunes U computing infrastructure or service. The TTU Office of the CIO and The Office of Research and Academic Communications at Texas Tech University recommend contributors keep a copy of their content for long-term preservation purposes.

This site is for educational purposes only. By uploading content and using the Texas Tech on iTunes U, you are agreeing to the conditions of use outlined above.